Leonardo UK National Agency Home

Welcome to ADAM, the new project and product portal for the Leonardo da Vinci programme.

The ADAM database is for current Leonardo promoters to showcase their projects, and for anyone who wants to view the innovative project work funded by the Leonardo programme.

You can upload completed products from your projects in a variety of formats, which will be viewed by many different organisations across Europe. This is a simple and cost effective way to share your project materials with a wide audience and make links with European organisations for future working.

Explore ADAM to get a good picture of the many innovative products and results produced by projects under the Leonardo programme.

Please begin by either registering via 'Login' button, or entering a key word in 'Search for Projects and Products' above.
